RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG, ETHEL ROSENBERG, was
Espionage-R

On 3/6/51 inquiry was made concerning purchases from 4/13/49 to 12/20/49 from the Pitt Machine Products Inc. by Continental Electric Co. 131 Boerum St. Brooklyn, N.Y. and for information concerning the activities of Julius Rosenberg and David Greenglass.

Mr. Irving Goodman, owner, Phenix Sales Housewares Corp. 131 Boerum St. Brooklyn, N.Y. advised that this firm formerly had a subsidiary corporation known as the Continental Electric Co., when the Phenix firm was located at 206 Middleton St. Brooklyn but that Continental Electric Co. was dissolved before 1949. Goodman recollected that the dissolution was in 1948. He stated that the Phenix Sales Houseware Corp. moved to 131 Boerum St. Brooklyn in about January 1950, the former building located at this address having been destroyed by fire in 1949. He had no recollection on record of any business transactions with the Pitt Machine Products, Inc. and did not know Julius Rosenberg or David Greenglass.

Reference report of SA Gerald J.
Van Dorn (A), New York, 12-2-50,
which sets forth lead to interview
the General Register Corporation, 36-20
33rd St., Long Island City, New York.

It was ascertained that the General Register Corporation moved from the above address to 43-01 22nd St.,
Long Island City 1, N.Y., about 6 months ago.

Mr. SAUL HAMMER, Secretary, General
Register Corporation, 43-01 22nd St., L.I.C., advised that in connection with
the manufacture of several thousand coin operated machines, which automatically issue transfers
the Pitt Machine Products Inc.

August 11, 1948	STUDS	27.60
TOTAL COST		* 1332.21

Mr. Hammer stated that he saw Julius Rosenberg at General Register Corporation on two occasions but never held any conversation with him. Mr. Hammer advised that Mr. ALFRED QUITTNER, Project Engineer, General Register Corporation, discussed the purchase of the aforementioned material from Pitt Machine Products Inc. with Julius Rosenberg. Mr. Hammer did not know who recommended the Pitt Machine Products Inc. to the General Register Corporation. Mr. Hammer advised that he did not know DAVID GREENGLASS.

Mr. RICHARD I. N. WEINGART,
Chairman of the Board, G.R.C.,
advised that he did not know
Julius Rosenberg or David Greenglass personally. Mr. Weingart stated that the Pitt Machine Products Inc.
was recommended to him, for the purpose of making parts for
G.R.C., by Mr. LIPTON, New York
representative of NATIONAL SLUG REJECTOR COMPANY, 5100 San Francisco Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri.

Mr. ALFRED QUITTNER,
Project Engineer, G.R.C., advised
that he spoke to Julius Rosenberg on 3 or 4 occasions at the General Register Corporation plant in connection with the aforementioned purchases. Mr. Quittnier stated that his conversation with Julius Rosenberg was limited strictly to business.
Mr. Quittnier did not know David Greenglass.

MEMORANDUM:

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
Espionage -R

On 3/5/51 Miss Penny Del Regno, Clerk in office of W.J. Roberts Co. 59 John St. N.Y.C. was contacted by the writer.

She advised after checking her office records that no insurance policy had been issued for the Pitt Machine Products, Inc. under policy #722128 of the Standard Marine Insurance Co. Ltd. 108 John St. N.Y.C. Similarly she advised that W.J. Roberts Company had no relationship to her knowledge with a Page Agency.

Miss Del Regno did locate a fire and extended insurance policy which had been issued in the name of Pitt Machine Products Inc. 370 East Houston St. N.Y.C. under policy #263552. This policy became effective May 10, 1949 and normally would have remained effective until May 10, 1950. However, the records reflected that this policy was cancelled on June 15, 1949; on 7/12/49, the premium for the effective period of the policy was paid by the Pitt Machine Company.

Miss Del Regno said that the order for the policy came to W.J. Roberts Co. from Charles Kaiser Associates now doing business as Spencer Marshall & Co. Inc. 1841 Broadway, N.Y.C.

N.Y. 65-15348

On 3/5/51 Mr. L.M. Peine 30 Church St. N.Y.C. was contacted by the writer. Mr. Peine advised that he is a collection Agent for numerous insurance Companies in the metropolitan area and is concerned with collections of unpaid premiums on insurance policies from companies which have received insurance coverage but have not paid premiums for the period of coverage.

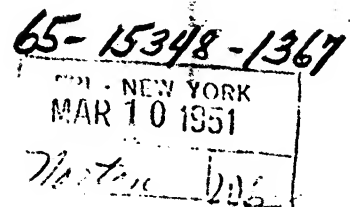

He advised that the Pitt Machine Company of 370 E. Houston St. N.Y. sounded familiar to him, but was unable to state whether he had ever contacted this firm for collection purposes.

A review of his correspondence files for the year 1949 to the present time disclosed no correspondence with the Pitt Machine Company. Mr. Peine only maintains records for a period of one year and then destroys them. He had no correspondence dating back prior to 1949.

He advised that he did not know Julius Rosenberg or David Greenglass. He was unable to furnish any additional information.

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESPIONAGE - R
NEW YORK FILE 65-15348

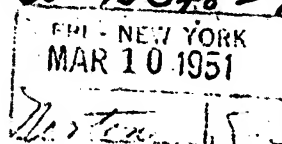

MRS. JENNIE MORRISON, insurance broker with offices located at 75 Maiden Lane was interviewed by the writer on 3/5/1951.

MRS. MORRISON resides at 14 Monroe St., Knickerbocker Village, and has lived there for the past several years. She recalled that in 1946 or 1947 her daughter spoke to a MR. ISADORE GOLDSTEIN, an employee or officer of the Pitt Machine Company, who was anxious to secure compensation insurance for coverage of Pitt's employees. MRS. MORRISON subsequently contacted MR. GOLDSTEIN, obtained particulars about his firm, and had a policy issued through the Great American Indemnity Company, 89 John Street.

MRS. MORRISON said her records were not accessible at the present time. She said complete information about this compensation policy could be obtained at the above mentioned company. She said that after about one year of the policy's existence, she went to the Pitt Machine Company, and spoke to the bookkeeper, name unknown, about renewing the policy. She was advised that the Company no longer had need of such a policy, and accordingly it was discontinued.

MRS. MORRISON said she did not know JULIUS ROSENBERG or DAVID GREENGLASS and had no recollection of having spoken to either of them about this policy.

MR. MILTON F. LINK, Vice-President of Great American Indemnity Company, 89 John Street, was then contacted regarding Policy #C 264464. This policy was issued in the names of JULIUS ROSENBERG, DAVID GREENGLASS, BERNARD ^{GREENGLASS} and ISADORE GOLDSTEIN as G.R. Engineering Company, 302 E. 2 St., New York. The policy was dated 3/6/1947 and expired on 3/6/1948. Policy was issued through insurance agent J. MORRISON. It was set forth that the post office address for this company was 370 E. Houston St., which change in address occurred about February 1948.

MEMO

This compensation policy was renewed under policy # 266616 effective 3/6/1948 until 3/6/1949. The policy was issued in the name of the Putt Machine Company, 370 E. Houston St., New York. JENNIE MORRISON was again listed as the insurance broker. The policy covered New York State employees. On 6/25/1948 name was corrected from Putt Machine Company to Pitt Machine Company.

On March 6, 1949, this policy was renewed under policy #C291784 in the name of the Pitt Machine Products Inc., 370 E. Houston St., N.Y.. This policy was cancelled before the expiration date of 3/6/1950. The company had no active policy coverage of the Pitt Machine Company at the present time. In each case the renewal of the policy was credited to MRS. MORRISON.

Four claims were paid by the insurer to employees of Pitt, one on July 22, 1947, one on April 22, 1948, one on May 22, 1948 and one on September 8, 1948.

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESP-R

USA Saypol requested that he be furnished with copies of the lens mould sketches and the sketch of the atom bomb and the reduction of plutonium, which sketches GREENGLASS originally furnished to ROSENBERG and GOLD in 1945.

Mr. Saypol stated he required these copies in order to discuss this case with Assistant Attorney General Peyton Ford of the Department.

One photostatic copy of each of the sketches was made available to USA Saypol.

Re: JULIUS ROSENBERG;
ESPIONAGE - R

At 10:30 A. M., Inspector Carl Hennrich, Bureau, called and referred to visit of Mr. Sheehy and the fact that he had stated if the Bureau desired a copy of transcript of trial proceedings each day, he would make same available. Mr. Hennrich said it was not recommended that we accept this offer, but if NYO could make appropriate arrangements to obtain copies for review for the Bureau, this should be done. Nothing was said about payment for transcripts. If NYO finds it necessary to pay for transcripts, Mr. Hennrich requested to be advised, at which time he said he would furnish authorization for the purchase of transcripts.

MAX SCHWARTZ
EXTORTION

The threatening letter from MAX SCHWARTZ to Judge Irving Kaufman was given to me at 9:55 A.M., March 13, 1951, by Judge Kaufman's assistant, Mr. Ben Benson.

Mr. Benson advised that the fingerprints on the letter would include his own, Judge Kaufman and those of the latter's secretary, Miss Anna Strausser, and NORMAN BEYER, clerk.

Mr. Benson requested that we furnish him with a photostatic copy of the letter for Judge Kaufman's files.

MEMORANDUM:

RE: DAVID GREENGLASS, et al
Espionage R

Judge Irving Kaufman called me at 9:35 AM today to advise that he had received a letter in reference to the Greenglass case which contains a vague threat to the effect that "if you continue to allow Greenglass to testify you will be a very sorry man". He advised that the letter was signed MAX SCHWARTZ and the envelope bore a return address which of course might be false. I pointed out that the threat was rather vague but I would arrange to have the letter picked up from the Judge's secretary and then check the indices, and appropriate action would then be taken. The Judge indicated he didn't have a possible violation of the extortion statute in mind but just felt if the man could be found at the address given an Agent might check to see what he meant by telling the Judge he would be sorry; that probably the writer is slightly affected mentally. He requested that the letter be returned to him after it has been perused here.

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESP-R

Supervisor Obendorf of the Washington Field called at 4:40 P.M. and advised that his office had completed the check of the State Department for record of entries and departures on SARYCHEV, SEMENOV, YAKOVLEV and FEDOSIMOV. He stated that certified documents are being made up and will be placed in the mail tonight.

Mr. Obendorf further advised that the check of I&NS has not been completed as yet and that as soon as it is he will advise this office.

Mr. Obendorf pointed out that in connection with I&NS records being introduced into a court trial, I&NS headquarters preferred to send the documents to its New York Office and have a New York representative introduce them at the trial. Mr. Obendorf did not know whether they would follow the same procedure in this case; however, in any event he will advise the New York Office.
